London

London is a famous and historic city. It is the capital of England in the United Kingdom.

The city is quite popular for international tourism because London is home to one of the oldest-standing monarchies in the western hemisphere.

Rita and Joanne recently traveled to London. They were very excited for their trip because this was their first journey overseas from the United States.

Among the popular sights that Rita and Joanne visited are Big Ben, Buckingham Palace, and the London Eye. Big Ben is one of London's most famous monuments.

It is a large clock tower located at the northern end of Westminster Palace. The clock tower is 96 meters tall. Unfortunately, Rita and Joanne were only able to view the tower from the outside.

The women learned that the tower's interior is undergoing renovations until 2021.

Fortunately, the London Eye, the city's famous Ferris wheel, was open to the public.

The London Eye is situated along the southern shores of the Thames River.

This attraction stands 135 meters high. It is one of London's most well-known spots for gaining aerial views of the city.

Each capsule of the Ferris wheel can hold up to 25 passengers.

When their capsule stopped at the top of the Ferris wheel, the women took spectacular panoramic photographs of the beautiful cityscape below.

The last place that Rita and Joanne visited was Buckingham Palace, the home of the Queen of England. The women were impressed by the palace's incredible architecture and historical value. Both Rita and Joanne enjoyed watching the Queen's guards outside the palace.

These guards wore red tunic uniforms, shiny black boots, and bearskin hats.

Despite the women's attempts to catch the attention of the guards, the guards are specifically trained to avoid distractions.

Because of this, the guards ignored the women completely.

Joanne and Rita had an amazing time visiting the city of London, and they are inspired to seek more international travel destinations in the future.

Miami

Christina visited Miami during her winter vacation. She is from Boston, where it is cold during the winter months.

Miami, however, has a very warm climate. There are many sunny days in Miami, and people can go to the beach all year long.

Christina spent a good portion of her trip on the beach to relax and sunbathe. However, she also explored Miami and its surroundings.

Inspired by Miami's proximity to the ocean, Christina visited the Miami Seaquarium to learn about marine life.

There, she watched a show using trained dolphins, killer whales, and other aquatic mammals.

She took a lot of pictures of the sea creatures jumping out of the water and performing tricks.

Christina also took an excursion to the Everglades National Park. This park is a protected area spanning 1.5 million acres.

Because the park is mostly swampland, it is home to many reptiles. Native animals include snakes, alligators, and crocodiles.

The park is also great for birdwatching. Christina enjoyed hiking the trails in the Everglades and observing the wildlife in its natural environment.

When Christina returned to the city, she visited Little Havana. This is Miami's Cuban neighborhood.

Christina could see that Little Havana's people demonstrated a lot of pride for their Cuban heritage.

There were many outdoor shops and vendors, live musicians, and the Cuban cuisine was delicious.

Little Havana was Christina's favorite part about her trip to Miami. This neighborhood made Christina feel like she had traveled to Cuba without ever having to leave the United States.

Chicago

Keith recently came back from a trip to Chicago, Illinois. This midwestern metropolis is found along the shore of Lake Michigan.

During his visit, Keith spent a lot of time exploring the city to visit important landmarks and monuments.

Keith loves baseball, and he made sure to take a visit to Wrigley Field.

Not only did he take a tour of this spectacular stadium, but he also got to watch a Chicago Cubs game.

In the stadium, Keith and the other fans cheered for the Cubs. Keith was happy that the Cubs won with a score of 5-4.

Chicago has many historic places to visit. Keith found the Chicago Water Tower impressive as it is one of the few remaining landmarks to have survived the Great Chicago Fire of 1871.

Keith also took a walk through Jackson Park, a great outdoor space that hosted the World's Fair of 1892.

The park is great for a leisurely stroll, and it still features some of the original architecture and replicas of monuments that were featured in the World's Fair.

During the last part of his visit, Keith managed to climb the stairs inside of the Willis Tower, a 110-story skyscraper.

Despite the challenge of climbing the many flights of stairs, Keith felt that reaching the top was worth the effort.

From the rooftop, Keith received a gorgeous view of the city's skyline with Lake Michigan in the background.
